History

The success of the men's youth competitions led to the launch of a U-19 Women's World Cup in 2002, which later became the current U-20 event. The USA won the first edition by defeating hosts Canada in a 'dream final' watched by a bumper crowd of almost 50,000. Germany 2010 recorded the highest average number of spectators with 12,353 and the best-ever total in the competitions history with 395,295.

Hat-tricks

24 players, representing eleven different countries, have scored a hat-trick in the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup. Inevitably, Christine Sinclair (CAN) and Kim Un Hwa (PRK) head the list scoring five goals for their country. Brazil's Marta scored the very first hat-trick in a 4-0 victory over France in 2002.
